

WAIFS SENT TO CHILDREN'S HOME BY LOCAL COMMITTEE

Father of Two Boys Dead and Mother in Jail.

BOXES AND STABLES HOME

Mistreated Lads Had Never Had Any School Advantages.

After living with neighbors, sleeping in boxes, stables, doorways, or wherever a bed could be improvised, Alex Taylor and John Taylor, aged 7 and 11 years respectively, Dorora waifs, were sent to the Children's Home this morning by Mrs. E. C. Niver of the Charleroi juvenile court committee. The father of the two children is dead, and the mother in the Allegheny county jail.

During the past several days since their mother was sent to jail for alleged misconduct, the lads have been living as best they could. The older one was able to secure odd jobs at Gallatin and there remained, being housed by people of that place. The younger one was forced to get things to eat as best he could, and too small to work much, had to occupy boxes, and stables for beds. Finally the attention of kind Charleroi people were called to their state, and Mrs. Niver of the juvenile court committee and Mrs. Watkins who conducts a small restaurant on McKean avenue near Sixth street, went to Gallatin yesterday to get the older boy, the younger having already come here. Arrangements were made to send them to the children's home and they were taken there this morning, happy at the promised relief from their condition.

The younger had never been to school and the older only a few months not long enough to learn his letters.

REMEMBER 25TH ANNIVERSARY

On the occasion of the 25th anniversary of his wedding, friends of John M. Fries surprised him last night at his home on Fallowfield avenue. The number consisted of eighteen of Mr. Fries' fellow members of the Royal Arcanum. The evening was pleasantly spent with euchre playing, music and other means of social enjoyment. Refreshments were served.

LITERARY SOCIETY HAS MANY FEATURES

What promises to be an attractive place tonight is the Methodist Episcopal church where the Epworth League will hold an old fashioned literary society. The society will be rich in all the old features known especially to the older folks and contains many new bright and original ideas. A spelling bee will be a feature, in which two sides will be lined up, and the usual formula of spelling each other down carried out.

Not This George Who Was Injured

Benford of Charleroi, and Benford of Somerset, Two Different Persons.

George W. Benford, traffic chief of the Bell Telephone company, after a vacation of two weeks spent in Greenville and other places in the northern part of the State returned this morning. Mr. Benford was surprised to learn upon his arrival that he was supposed to be under the care of a physician in Somerset for injuries received in an automobile wreck. He was also somewhat sorrowed to learn that for a time people here wept because of the news of his death. It wasn't this George. The man hurt last Friday at Somerset, while bearing a like name, and it is said, fitting the description of the local man, is no relation.

LAST DAY FOR TAXES

Tax Collector Mathias Having His Busy Day.

SEPTEMBER BIG MONTH

Today is the last day for paying taxes at a discount. There is a rush for Tax Collector J. W. Mathias, office, and money is flowing into the coffers at an unprecedented rate. Saturday taxes can be paid at face only, and after the last of January 5 per cent is added.

Tax Collector Mathias is of the opinion that this month's collections will surpass the collections of last year during a similar month. Approximately he has taken in about $40,000 thus far. August was a good month for collections.

Charleroi Stores Popular

Charleroi stores are popular among folks all along the river, and even California Normal girls come on every possible occasion. Many of the dormitory girls at the Normal send to Charleroi by traveling students for articles which they either cannot or do not buy up the river.

CLAIMS DENS RUN UNDER PROTECTION

Charleroi Exception to General Rule According to Man Who Wants to Start Gambling Joint.

Claiming that in other towns around here and in Washington gambling dens are in full operation under the protection of the police, a local man approached Chief of Police C. W. Albright recently, it is stated, and asked that he be allowed to start a "place" on the quiet, and requesting police protection. Chief of Police Albright refused, and told him the only place he would get protection would be behind the bars if caught operating a gambling "den." In asking for permission to locate here, it is claimed, the man said that there were 25 or so "dens" in full operation at the county seat, one of them near the court house, and that they were being run in other towns with full knowledge and consent of the police. When refused he seemed very much put-out that his rights should be so interfered with. Washington was the only town he mentioned prominently as being infested with "dens."

CAMPAIGN PARTY REACHES WESTERN PART OF STATE

Mr. Tener and Colleagues on Republican Ticket Will be in Jeannette Saturday for Grand Rally.

Congressman J. K. Tener, Republican candidate for Governor, and his party of campaigners, who have been campaigning through the eastern and central portions of the State during the past two weeks, are working westward, and will be at Jeannette in Westmoreland county, Saturday night, where a monster demonstration has been arranged. The party will be met at Greensburg Saturday forenoon by a reception committee, and escorted to Jeannette accompanied by prominent county party workers. Today Mr. Tener is at Myersdale, Somerset county, where a large county fair is in progress.

Mr. Tener and his party have had a triumphant tour thus far along their route. Everywhere they have been he has been greeted by large crowds of voters, many of them former independents and Democrats, who have assured him of their support. Both the newspaper men and Hon. Henry Houck, who is again a candidate for re-election as Auditor General, who accompanied the Stuart campaign party four years ago, say they encounter infinitely more favorable prospects for Republican success now than they did then. There is no dissension in the Republican party, and no dissatisfaction with the administration. Governor Stuart's splendid administration has set a pace that his successor must follow, and Mr. Tener's known honesty, inspiring personality and integrity, stamps him as a worthy successor to the present executive.

BERRYMAN'S HAVE AUTUMN OPENING

New Designs of Hats and Suits Attract Much Attention.

With the millinery and suit department the center of attraction the formal autumn opening of Berryman's store was held yesterday. Crowds surged through the various departments of the store both afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock and evening from 7 to 10 o'clock. During the evening the occasion was enlivened with music furnished by Jenkins Orchestra.

The new designs of hats and suits in the millinery and suit department were subjected to critical inspection and many favorable comments were heard. The latest fashions are to be seen at Berryman's and with the departments decorated and the new creations gorgeously displayed to the best advantage, the general appearance of the store was greatly enhanced.

In all departments the goods were handsomely displayed. Decorations throughout lent color and beauty to the effect. One of the most attractive places throughout the store was the carpet room where a number of quilts are on display, having been entered in the quilt contest conducted by the owners in the Reddiscode Cotton Batting company's contest. The various store employees who prepared for the opening were recipients of numerous compliments for the skill and care they exhibited in preparing the display. The men's clothing and furnishing department also attracted unusual interest.

READY FOR CENTENNIAL

Washington to Have a Big Week of Entertainment.

AREOPLANE FLIGHTS DAILY

More than ordinary interest is being taken in the airship meet of the Wright Brothers at the Washington Centennial every day next week, October 3 to 8, as this will be the first time the famous flying brothers have appeared in Pennsylvania. Walter Brookins, whose daring flights at Atlantic City and other aviation fields has given him an international reputation, will be one of the sensational flyers and he has already given assurance that he will attempt to break the record for altitude, if the weather conditions are at all favorable. Mr. Brookins' flight yesterday of 187 miles from Chicago to Springfield has added to his reputation. Wilbur and Orville Wright have taken a special interest in the Washington aviation meet and they will have with them Roy Knabenschue and other aviators.

In order to take care of the large crowds expected, cars will be run in trains every half hour, leaving Liberty and Grant, on the hour and half hour, direct to the aviation field on the Washington trolley line. Special service will also be given between Canonsburg and Washington and on the local lines in the centennial city.

HIGH DIGNITARIES COMING

Bishop Alexander of New York City Expected with Party of Priests.

Arrangements are being made by St. John the Baptist Russian Orthodox congregation for the dedication of their church at the corner of Lookout avenue and Tenth street on October 9. The event will be a big one in church circles of the town, and it is expected that many dignitaries of high rank from New York, Pittsburgh and other places will be here to assist in the dedication.

The church is one purchased some years ago by the congregation from the First Christian congregation of Charleroi upon the erection of the latter's new edifice on Fallowfield avenue. It has never been formally dedicated, and recently in order to prepare it for such an event, has been undergoing a thorough renovation. Fine canvas paintings valued at $2,000 or more have been hung in the interior, the work of John Lededeft, a Russian artist, who has been here the past four months doing the work. The church has also been decorated and refitted throughout.

It is expected that at the head of the visiting dignitaries on the day of dedication will be Bishop Alexander of New York city, one of the highest in rank of the Russian church in the United States. Priests from Pittsburgh and vicinity are expected also. The local congregation numbers about 400, and is one of the most active growing denomination among the foreign people of the entire community. The church is partly supported by the Russian government. Rev. John Sechinsky is the pastor in charge.

Rev. I. N. Ross. Parade schools and college, educational exercises, football game, great band contest, aeroplane flights, Walter Brookins, reception at college gymnasium.

Thursday, October 6—Industrial day. Mammoth parade, labor and military organizations, free barbecue, G. A. R. campfire, field meet at College Athletic park, Wright Brothers' aeroplane.

Friday, October 7—Distinguished visitors day. Address by Dr. Albert Bushnell Hart, of Harvard, W. J. Pilkington, of Des Moines, Ia., and others. Parade of fraternal organizations, Wright Brothers' aeroplane, night parade in costume.

Saturday, October 8—Agricultural day. Program to be prepared by leading farmers of Washington and Greene counties, with prizes for exhibits and demonstration. Band music at all times during the week.

The Pleasures of Hope

Consulting his well-thumbed mull's Legislative Hand Book, which has no doubt become dog-eared from figuring out what "might have been," former Congressman E. F. Acheson has again convinced himself that John K. Tener will be defeated for Governor. Last spring he figured out the same comforting "dope" that Mr. Tener could not be renominated for Congress, and like Col. Roosevelt had the Charleroi man "beaten to a frazzle." This was before the primary. After that there was the Republican nomination for Governor. Tener could never land that. Oh, no. And Mr. Acheson produced figures from his well-thumbed Smull's to prove it. This is how he does it out that Tener can't be elected Governor: "In 1906 the total vote was 1,006,545, of which Governor Stuart received 506,418 and the combined opposition, 500,125. No less than 145,657 Independent Republicans voted the Lincoln ticket. Stuart was fully 100,000 votes stronger than Tener. If a million votes are polled in Pennsylvania in November it is a safe estimate that Tener will not have more than 400,000 to 600,000 for the opposing candidates. Berry will receive the votes of not less than 250,000 Independent Republicans, and if he gets one-half the Democratic vote given to Emery in 1906, or one-third the vote given to Bryan in 1908 he can be elected for the bulk of the prohibition vote will go to Berry."

Just how Mr. Acheson expects to tie up the 250,000 Independent Republicans, when the Lincoln party, with more money, organization, enthusiasm and ginger, could only poll something over 145,000 four years ago, he does not state. Perhaps he has a phantom brigade or so in reserve. Possibly he has a string on the Democratic party, just as he used to have on a portion of it in Washington county, and will turn the rank and file of the terrified over to Berry. Although he speaks confidently as to prospective results, much depends upon the qualifying "if" in his statement. Anyhow, he has the "booze and boodle" cause to fall back on after the votes are counted and his papers come to explain how it happened.

Ready to Quit

The announcement of W. H. Berry, Keystone candidate for Governor, that he is ready to withdraw in favor of a Democratic candidate who may be chosen to succeed Senator Grim, the Democratic candidate, is but the forerunner of the collapse of the Berry campaign. While Mr. Berry professes his belief that he can win out, hard headed supporters of the kick against the Republican party see that the cause is so hopeless as to be a wretched fiasco, and that the only possible hope, which is a forlorn one at best, is for the Keystone party to make a new deal and tie up with the Democratic party. To this end committees of the two parties have been appointed to consider the project, and whatever is done in that line must be completed by next Tuesday, in order to comply with the requirements of the ballot law.

By the collapse of their independent campaign and the position the disgruntled Republicans who compose the Keystone party have to go over to the Democratic party in order to oppose the Republican administration of the state. They have not helped their cause by their actions they have done more to help them. They are actuated more by motives to defame the Republican party than to advance civic righteousness. Had the latter been their motive they would have entered the primaries and sought to correct the alleged party abuses within the organization, as Col. Roosevelt and his following did in New York, instead of trying to disrupt the party. Any combination that the Keystoneites may make now with the Democrats will avail them nothing. They never had any cause for existence, and all they can do now is to express their disapprobation against things that are by voting the Democratic ticket.

Sets the Pace

It is refreshing to note the marked similarity of the Republican State platform that Col. Roosevelt and his following put through the New York State convention at Saratoga this week to the platform adopted by the Republican State convention of Pennsylvania at Harrisburg last June. Both platforms endorse President Taft's administration, uphold the Payne tariff law, and endorse their present State administrations. Both platforms also declared for the promotion of economic conditions in their respective States that will promote the public welfare.

In addition the New York platform declares for a direct primary law, along the lines of the one now in operation in Pennsylvania. In declaring for this plank in the platform Col. Roosevelt, in his speech before the convention, cited an example of the workings of the Pennsylvania law. He stated that the advantage of the primary law was that when Joe Sibley spent a big sum of money in influencing the vote at a direct primary, he got found out, and the result is that he will not be Congressman. Had he spent this money in influencing a nominating convention no one would have been the wiser. The Pennsylvania law furnished the basis for the fight for the direct primary law by the Republicans of New York, and it has been pronounced to be one of the best laws of the kind in existence. In the matter of taxation, direct primary laws and economic administration, Pennsylvania is setting the pace for the other States to follow.

Six different makes of shoe in three months only to throw them away, was almost desperate until she found the Red Cross Shoe

The following letter is typical of the experiences of so many women that we asked to publish it:—

"I have been wearing the Red Cross Shoe for two years. I had previous to finding the Red Cross Shoe, purchased and cast aside six different makes in about three months and was almost desperate over not being able to get comfortable shoes. Now I always call for the Red Cross Shoe."

If you want to know what real comfort is, wear the Red Cross Shoe this season.

Tanned by the special Red Cross process

The Red Cross sole is tanned by a special process which preserves all the natural life and suppleness of the leather. Though a regular thickness this sole is so supple you can bend it double when new.

This entirely prevents the burning and "drawing" stiff soles cause. The moment you put it on, you notice the difference—it is so easy on your feet. High Shoes $4.50 and $5. Oxfords $3.50 and $4.

The Cry of the Age is "Back to the Farm"

With the best market in the world at his door, the intensive farmer located in the Monongahela valley is the wise man of his generation.

Every town has as much need of the small truck, fruit and poultry farms around it as it has for more factories. Such farms make living better and cheaper for the laboring man and more business for the merchant.

I have secured control of a large farm within five minutes walk of the borough limits and will, within the next six weeks, sell it out in small farms. I now have purchasers for about one-half of it and owing to the great demand for small farms near Charleroi expect to close all sales for these farms in a very short time.

A farm big enough for all the boys to work as a truck, poultry and fruit farm while the father works at the mill, can be bought for the price of a cheap town lot. Good country school nearby.

A farm big enough to require the whole time of one intensive farmer can be bought for $500.00. Read the Pittsburgh papers about the great land show which will be held there within the next few weeks and learn what can be raised on a few acres of ground by the new methods of intensive farming.

Call at the office of Charles O. Frye, 511 Washington Avenue, and get full particulars.

RADICAL CHANGE

IN WOMEN'S SHOES

The Wonderful Ease of the Red Cross Shoe Brings Out Many Imitations

Shoe Manufacturers All Over the United States Trying to Produce a Flexible Sole

One of the greatest successes ever made in the shoe business, said Mr. Beerens, the reliable shoe man of 513 Fallowfield avenue, yesterday, is the Red Cross Shoe. It has taught women that comfort and style can be perfectly combined, and as a result a revolution is taking place in the making of women's shoes. Other manufacturers are trying every method they can think of to get the results secured by the Red Cross Tanning Process. Soles are "slashed," "flexed" and "worked" in an effort to make them flexible, but like all imitations they lack the merit of the original.

The superiority of the Red Cross Shoe lies in the fact that its sole is the highest grade leather put through a special tanning process, which takes six months' time. No acids or "stuffing" of any kind are used to hurry it through. As a result all the natural life and elasticity of the leather are preserved. It bends with the foot, giving a delightful feeling of ease and comfort, and its durability is not in the least impaired.

The numerous imitations of the Red Cross Shoe cannot use this special tanning process, so they endeavor to make "just as good" a shoe from the ordinary sole leather of commerce. Much of this is tanned in six weeks' time. It cannot be compared to the Red Cross sole leather in quality and it has very little flexibility. It is "broken up" by machinery in an effort to make it flexible and the result is never satisfactory. Women are learning to avoid these "made-over" substitutes and are demanding the genuine Red Cross Shoe.

A great many women, continued Mr. Beerens, have had the idea that a comfortable shoe could not have any sale. They have become so used to "breaking in" ordinary shoes to get the style they want that the Red Cross Shoe proves somewhat of a revelation. They find that it has all the style they could ask for—in fact, they can wear closer fit, and they do not have to break it in. The new styles of Fall are the smartest, trimmest shoes we have ever had in our store. Any woman will find it a pleasure to look at them. It will only be necessary to try them on her feet and allow her to bend the flexible sole to make her a Red Cross Shoe convert for life.

THE UNION MADE CLOTHING STORE

The Symbolism Didn't Appeal.
 "Charlie," sorrowfully sighed the young lady in the parlor, of the concrete house on Washington avenue, "it is nearly 12 o'clock."

"Yes, Belinda," was the breathing response of her poetical companion, who was sitting on the sofa beside her. "the minute hand is drawing closer to the hour hand, and when the time of midnight is chimed the two hands will be even as one. Oh, darling Belinda," he continued as he literally simulated the action of the minute hand, "may not the coming together of those two hands be symbolic of us?"

She broke away and stood firmly on her feet. "No, Charles Henry Smith," she retorted angrily, "the two hands will remain as one but a single second, and then the minute hand will divorce itself and go on its way alone. No, Mr. Smith, a minute hand that doesn't stick isn't the kind of symbolism I want!"—Chicago News.

Dividing a Long Sermon.

Dr. Samuel Inell of the last half of the eighteenth century, who used to preach two or three hours, like Isaac Barrows, was ingenious in detaining his congregation. On one occasion, after preaching nearly two hours as long as he could feel secure in the presence of all his hearers he remarked that he was done preaching to sinners and that they were at liberty to go; the rest of his discourse would be addressed to good people.

A gentleman who once went to hear him stated that when the hourglass was nearly ready to be turned a second time from the commencement of his sermon he said, much to the relief of the person who related it, "Once more." After going on some eight or ten minutes longer he said, "To conclude," and after another about equal interval he said, "Lastly."

The gentleman added that he expected every moment to hear him say "Everlastingly."

He Came Down Light.

A Chicago board of trade man who was not in the habit of attending church was taking a walk one Sunday morning, and on coming to a church at the regular hour of service he decided to go in. As he entered the auditorium in which the pews were adjusted upon a sloping floor an usher stepped forward and, wishing to consult him as to location before conducting him to a sitting, politely inquired:

"Would you like to come down pretty well?"

Mistaking the inquiry to be an appeal for money, the board of trade man began to fumble through his pockets as he drawled:

"I'd like to, but I'm not prepared to come down very heavy, as 15 cents is all I have with me."—Harper's Magazine.

A Varnishing Tip.

When varnishing wood the work must be done in a warm room at a temperature of at least 75 degrees F. At a lower temperature the moisture in the air will give a milky and cloudy appearance to the varnish. On the other hand, at the higher temperature the moisture is not precipitated until the alcohol of the varnish has sufficiently evaporated to leave a thin smooth film of shellac. The durability and gloss are dependent on this.

The Blind Man's Lantern.

A blind man in Khoota (a Caucasian village) came back from the river one night bringing a pitcher of water and carrying in his hand a lighted lantern. Some one meeting him said: "You're blind. It's all the same to you whether it's day or night. Of what use to you is a lantern?" "I don't carry the lantern in order to see the road," replied the blind man, "but to keep some fool like you from running against me and breaking my pitcher."

His Peers.

"Pa, what does it mean to be tried by a jury of one's peers?"

"It means, my son, that a man is to be tried by a jury composed of men who are his equals or on an equality with him, so that they will have no prejudice against him."

"Then, pa, I s'pose you'd have to be tried by a jury of baldheaded men."

The Widow.

"In a town," said a life insurance official, "where life insurance was a rare thing a schoolteacher said to a little boy pupil:

"Tommy, define the word widow."

"A widow," Tommy answered, "is a poor woman with a large family of children who takes boarders."

Painfully Frank.

Wedderly—They say that a man and his wife grow to look alike after they have been married a few years. Now, my wife and I have been married ten years. Do you think we look alike? Singleton—Yes, indeed. You both seem to have the same sad expression.

Might Have Been Worse.

Rheumatic Patient—Oh, doctor, I do suffer so with my hands and feet! Cheery Doctor—My dear woman, only think what inconvenience you would have to suffer without them.

The Earth.

Tommy—Pop, does the earth go round? Tommy's Pop—Yes, my son. But it wouldn't if it was divided among all the people who want it.—Philadelphia Record.

No man has yet discovered the means of giving successfully friendly advice to women—not even to his own.—Balzac.

WAIFS SENT TO CHILDREN'S HOME BY LOCAL COMMITTEE

Father of Two Boys Dead and Mother in Jail.

BOXES AND STABLES HOME

Mistreated Lads Had Never Had Any School Advantages.

After living with neighbors, sleeping in boxes, stables, doorways, or wherever a bed could be improvised, Alex. Taylor and John Taylor, aged 7 and 11 years respectively, Dorora waifs, were sent to the Children's Home this morning by Mrs. E. C. Niver of the Charleroi juvenile court committee. The father of the two children is dead, and the mother in the Allegheny county jail.

During the past several days since their mother was sent to jail for alleged misconduct, the lads have been living as best they could. The older one was able to secure odd jobs at Gallatin and there remained, being housed by people of that place. The younger one was forced to get things to eat as best he could, and too small to work much, had to occupy boxes, and stables for beds. Finally the attention of kind Charleroi people were called to their state, and Mrs. Niver of the juvenile court committee and Mrs. Watkins who conducts a small restaurant on McKean avenue near Sixth street, went to Gallatin yesterday to get the older boy, the younger having already come here. Arrangements were made to send them to the children's home and they were taken there this morning, happy at the promised relief from their condition.

The younger had never been to school and the older only a few months not long enough to learn his letters.

REMEMBER 25TH ANNIVERSARY

On the occasion of the 25th anniversary of his wedding, friends of John M. Fries surprised him last night at his home on Fallowfield avenue. The number consisted of eighteen of Mr. Fries' fellow members of the Royal Arcanum. The evening was pleasantly spent with euchre playing, music and other means of social enjoyment. Refreshments were served.

LITERARY SOCIETY HAS MANY FEATURES

What promises to be an attractive place tonight is the Methodist Episcopal church where the Epworth League will hold an old fashioned literary society. The society will be rich in all the old features known especially to the older folks and contains many new bright and original ideas. A spelling bee will be a feature, in which two sides will be lined up, and the usual formula of spelling each other down carried out.

Not This George Who Was Injured

Benford of Charleroi, and Benford of Somerset, Two Different Persons.

George W. Benford, traffic chief of the Bell Telephone company, after a vacation of two weeks spent in Greenfield and other places in the northern part of the State returned this morning. Mr. Benford was surprised to learn upon his arrival that he was supposed to be under the care of a physician in Somerset for injuries received in an automobile wreck. He was also somewhat surprised to learn that for a time people here wept because of the news of his death. It wasn't this George. The man hurt last Friday at Somerset, while bearing a like name, and it is said, fitting the description of the local man, is no relation.

LAST DAY FOR TAXES

Tax Collector Mathias Having His Busy Day.

SEPTEMBER BIG MONTH

Today is the last day for paying taxes at a discount. There is a rush for Tax Collector J. W. Mathias, office, and money is flowing into the coffers at an unprecedented rate. Saturday taxes can be paid at face value, and after the last of January 5 per cent is added.

Tax Collector Mathias is of the opinion that this month's collections will surpass the collections of last year during a similar month. Approximately he has taken in about $40,000 thus far. August was a good month for collections.

APPOINTED MASTER MECHANIC OF PLANT

J. W. Cordes, Jr., Leaves to Accept New Position.

J. W. Cordes, Jr., former electrician at the Charleroi Plate Glass plant, has accepted the position of master mechanic at the Columbia Plate Glass works at Blairsville and left yesterday for that place to assume his new position. The family will remain in Charleroi, for a time at least.

Charleroi Stores Popular

Charleroi stores are popular among folks all along the river, and even California Normal girls come on every possible occasion. Many of the dormitory girls at the Normal send to Charleroi by traveling students for articles which they either cannot or do not buy up the river.

Mrs. F. P. McCloskey is a Pittsburgh visitor today.

CLAIMS DENS RUN UNDER PROTECTION

Charleroi Exception to General Rule According to Man Who Wants to Start Gambling Joint.

Claiming that in other towns asking for permission to locate here, it is claimed, the man said that there were 25 or so "dens" in full operation at the county seat, one of them near the court house, and that they were being run in other towns with full knowledge and consent of the police. When refused he seemed to be so interfered with. Washington was the only town he mentioned prominently as being infested with "dens."

CAMPAIGN PARTY REACHES WESTERN PART OF STATE

Mr. Tener and Colleagues on Republican Ticket Will be in Jeannette Saturday for Grand Rally.

Congressman J. K. Tener, Republican candidate for Governor, and his party of campaigners, who have been campaigning through the eastern and central portions of the State during the past two weeks, are working westward, and will be at Jeannette in Westmoreland county, Saturday night, where a monster demonstration has been arranged. The party will be met at Greensburg Saturday forenoon by a reception committee, and escorted to Jeannette accompanied by prominent county party workers. Today Mr. Tener is at Myersdale, Somerset county, where a large county fair is in progress.

Mr. Tener and his party have had a triumphant tour thus far along their route. Everywhere they have been he has been greeted by large crowds of voters, many of them former independents and Democrats, who have assured him of their support. Both the newspaper men and Hon. Henry Houck, who is again a candidate for re-election as Auditor General, who accompanied the Stuart campaign party four years ago, say they encounter infinitely more favorable prospects for Republican success now than they did then. There is no dissension in the Republican party, and no dissatisfaction with the administration. Governor Stuart's splendid administration has set a pace that his successor must follow, and Mr. Tener's know honesty, inspiring personality and integrity, stamps him as a worthy successor to the present executive.

There is not the slightest indication, according to the State leaders of any formidable opposition in Philadelphia and is conservatively predicted that Philadelphia county will give the ticket a majority of 80,000 while the majority in the State will be no less than 150,000.

Chairman Henry F. Walton of the Republican State committee has received reports from every county in the State. Reports at Republican headquarters, when they are announced have already been carefully verified, and it is said that they prove unreliable. Chairman Walton declared this week that not in 20 years has there been so much harmony of sentiment and action in the party.

BERRYMAN'S HAVE AUTUMN OPENING

New Designs of Hats and Suits Attract Much Attention.

With the millinery and suit department the center of attraction the formal autumn opening of Berryman's store was held yesterday. Crowds surged through the various departments of the store both afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock and evening from 7 to 10 o'clock. During the evening the occasion was enlivened with music furnished by Jenkins Orchestra.

The new designs of hats and suits in the millinery and suit department were subjected to critical inspection and many favorable comments were heard. The latest fashions are to be seen at Berryman's and with the departments decorated and the new creations gorgeously displayed to the best advantage, the general appearance of the store was greatly enhanced.

In all departments the goods were handsomely displayed. Decorations throughout lent color and beauty to the effect. One of the most attractive places throughout the store was the carpet room where a number of quilts are on display, having been entered in the quilt contest conducted by the owners in the Reddiscode Cotton Batting company's contest. The various store employees who prepared for the opening were recipients of numerous compliments for the skill and care they exhibited in preparing the display. The men's clothing and furnishing department also attracted unusual interest.

Two of Lebedeff's children are accomplished musicians. Volla, the daughter here, who is but 10 years old, has attracted much attention by her capable handling with ease the works of the masters. A 13-year old daughter is now studying at the Alexander Conservatory at Moscow, where she is said to rank as one of the best students. Volla during her residence in Charleroi has been studying music under Miss Elsie Crill. She attends the Fifth street school and is in the Fourth grade.

Health Inspector Visits in Valley

State Man Investigates Conditions Near Brownsville.

On a tour of inspection to look after some complaints in the vicinity of the Diamond Coal company's mines at West Brownsville and some in East Pike Run, D. J. Marshall, of New Castle, a State health inspector was in this vicinity yesterday and this morning. Several complaints have been received from up the river of the condition of sewers and out-houses and it was to abate these alleged nuisances that Mr. Marshall was sent into this district. He stopped off in Charleroi a short time to visit friends.

READY FOR CENTENNIAL

Washington to Have a Big Week of Entertainment.

AREOPLANE FLIGHTS DAILY

More than ordinary interest is being taken in the airship meet of the Wright Brothers at the Washington Centennial every day next week, October 3 to 8, as this will be the first time the famous flying brothers have appeared in Pennsylvania. Walter Brookins, whose daring flights at Atlantic City and other aviation fields has given him an international reputation, will be one of the sensational flyers and he has already given assurance that he will attempt to break the record for altitude, if the weather conditions are at all favorable. Mr. Brookins' flight yesterday of 187 miles from Chicago to Springfield has added to his reputation. Wilbur and Orville Wright have taken a special interest in the Washington aviation meet and they will have with them Roy Knabenschue and other aviators.

In order to take care of the large crowds expected, cars will be run in trains every half hour, leaving Liberty and Grant, on the hour and half hour, direct to the aviation field on the Washington trolley line. Special service will also be given between Canonsburg and Washington and on the local lines in the centennial city.

There will be something doing every minute of every day during the week. A synopsis of the week's program follows: Sunday, October 2—Church day. Special service in the various churches, morning and evening. Sunday school rallies, Y. M. C. A. meeting afternoon. Prominent speakers, monster chorus.

Monday, October 3—Welcome day. Informal reception. First aeroplane flights, Wright Brothers, operated by Walter Brookins.

Tuesday, October 4—Historical day. Captain Daniel Ashworth, historical tableau, professional actors in costume, automobile parade, aeroplane flights, Walter Brookins, W. and J. Glee Club, 8 p. m.

Wednesday, October 5—Educational day. Address, D. T. Watson, Nathan C. Schaeffer, Joe Mitchell Chapple.

Thursday, October 6—Industrial day. Mammoth parade, labor and military organizations, free barbecue, G. A. R. campfire, field meet at College Athletic park, Wright Brothers' aeroplane.

Friday, October 7—Distinguished visitors day. Address by Dr. Albert Bushnell Hart, of Harvard, W. J. Pilkington, of Des Moines, Ia., and others. Parade of fraternal organizations, Wright Brothers' aeroplane, night parade in costume.

Saturday, October 8—Agricultural day. Program to be prepared by leading farmers of Washington and Greene counties, with prizes for exhibits and demonstration. Band music at all times during the week.

Russian Congregation Among Largest in Charleroi.

HIGH DIGNITARIES COMING

Bishop Alexander of New York City Expected with Party of Priests.

Arrangements are being made by St. John the Baptist Russian Orthodox congregation for the dedication of their church at the corner of Lookout avenue and Tenth street on October 9. The event will be a big one in church circles of the town, and it is expected that many dignitaries of high rank from New York, Pittsburgh and other places will be here to assist in the dedication.

The church is one purchased some years ago by the congregation from the First Christian congregation of Charleroi upon the erection of the latter's new edifice on Fallowfield avenue. It has never been formally dedicated, and recently in order to prepare it for such an event, has been undergoing a thorough renovation. Fine canvas paintings valued at $2,000 or more have been hung in the interior, the work of John Ledeff, a Russian artist, who has been here the past four months doing the work. The church has also been decorated and refitted throughout.

It is expected that at the head of the visiting dignitaries on the day of dedication will be Bishop Alexander of New York city, one of the highest in rank of the Russian church in the United States. Priests from Pittsburgh and vicinity are expected also. The local congregation numbers about 400, and is one of the most active growing denomination among the foreign people of the entire community. The church is partly supported by the Russian government. Rev. John Sechinsky is the pastor in charge.

Rev. I. N. Ross. Parade schools and college, educational exercises, football game, great band contest, aeroplane flights, Walter Brookins, reception at college gymnasium.

Thursday, October 6—Industrial day. Mammoth parade, labor and military organizations, free barbecue, G. A. R. campfire, field meet at College Athletic park, Wright Brothers' aeroplane.

Friday, October 7—Distinguished visitors day. Address by Dr. Albert Bushnell Hart, of Harvard, W. J. Pilkington, of Des Moines, Ia., and others. Parade of fraternal organizations, Wright Brothers' aeroplane, night parade in costume.

Saturday, October 8—Agricultural day. Program to be prepared by leading farmers of Washington and Greene counties, with prizes for exhibits and demonstration. Band music at all times during the week.

The Pleasures of Hope

Consulting "his" well-thumbed mull's Legislative Hand Book, which has no doubt become dog-eared from figuring out what "might have been," former Congressman E. F. Acheson has again convinced himself that John K. Tener will be defeated for Governor. Last spring he figured out the same comforting "dope" that Mr. Tener could not be renominated for Congress, and like Col. Roosevelt had the Charleroi man "beaten to a frazzle." This was before the primary election, when the Republican nomination for Governor, Tener could never land that. Oh, no. And Mr. Acheson produced figures from his well-thumbed Smull's to prove it. This is how he dopes it out that Tener can't be elected Governor: "In 1906 the total vote was 1,006,645, of which Governor Stuart received 506,418 and the combined opposition, 500,125. No less than 145,857 Independent Republicans voted the Lincoln ticket. Stuart was fully 100,000 votes stronger than Tener. If a million votes are polled in Pennsylvania in November it is a safe estimate that Tener will not have more than 400,000 to 600,000 for the opposing candidates. Berry will receive the votes of not less than 250,000 Independent Republicans, and if he gets one-half the Democratic vote given to Emery in 1906, or one-third the vote given to Bryan in 1906 he can be elected for the bulk of the Prohibition vote will go to Berry."

Just how Mr. Acheson expects to line up the 250,000 Independent Republicans, when the Lincoln party, with more money, organization, enthusiasm and ginger, could only poll something over 145,000 four years ago, he does not state. Perhaps he has a phantom brigade or so in reserve. Possibly he has a string on the Democratic party, just as he used to have on a portion of it in Washington county, and will turn the rank and file of the terrified over to Berry. Although he speaks confidently as to prospective results, much depends upon the qualifying "if" in his statement. Anyhow, he has the "booze and boodle" cause to fall back on after the votes are counted and his paper come to explain how it happened.

Ready to Quit

The announcement of W. H. Berry, eyestone candidate for Governor, that he is ready to withdraw in favor of a Democratic candidate who may be chosen to succeed Senator Grim, the Democratic candidate, is but the forerunner of the collapse of the Berry campaign. While Mr. Berry professes his belief that he can win out, hard headed supporters of the kick against the Republican party see that the cause is so hopeless as to be a wretched fiasco, and that the only possible hope, which is a forlorn one at best, is for the Keystone party to make a new deal and tie up with the Democratic party. To this end committees of the two parties have been appointed to consider the project, and whatever is done in that line must be completed by next Tuesday, in order to comply with the requirements of the ballot law.

By the collapse of their independent campaign of opposition the disgruntled Republicans who compose the Keystone party will have to go over to the Democratic party in order to oppose the Republican administration of the state. They have not helped their cause by their actions they have done more to defeat the party they are actuated more by motives to defeat the Republican party than to advance civic righteousness. Had the latter been their motive they would have entered the primaries and sought to correct the alleged party abuses within the organization, as Col. Roosevelt and his following did in New York, instead of trying to disrupt the party. Any combination that the Keystone may make now with the Democrats will avail them nothing. They never had any cause for existence, and all they can do now is to express their disapprobation against things that are by voting the Democratic ticket.

Sets the Pace

It is refreshing to note the marked similarity of the Republican State platform that Col. Roosevelt and his following put through the New York State convention at Saratoga this week to the platform adopted by the Republican State convention of Pennsylvania at Harrisburg last June. Both platforms endorse President Taft's administration, uphold the Payne tariff law, and endorse their present State administrations. Both platforms also declared for the promotion of economic conditions in their respective States that will promote the public welfare.

In addition the New York platform declares for a direct primary law along the lines of the one now in operation in Pennsylvania. In declaring for this plank in the platform Col. Roosevelt, in his speech before the convention, cited an example of the workings of the Pennsylvania law. He stated that the advantage of the primary law was that when Joe Sibley spent a big sum of money in influencing the vote at a direct primary, he got found out, and the result is that he will not be Congressman. Had he spent this money in influencing a nominating convention no one would have been the wiser. The Pennsylvania law furnished the basis for the fight for the direct primary law by the Republicans of New York, and it has been pronounced to be one of the best laws of the kind in existence. In the matter of taxation, direct primary laws and economic administration, Pennsylvania is setting the pace for the other States to follow.

Six different makes of shoe in three months only to throw them away, was almost desperate until she found the Red Cross Shoe

The following letter is typical of the experiences of so many women that we asked to publish it:—

"I have been wearing the Red Cross Shoe for two years. I had previous to finding the Red Cross Shoe, purchased and cast aside six different makes in about three months and was almost desperate over not being able to get comfortable shoes. Now I always call for the Red Cross Shoe."

If you want to know what real comfort is, wear the Red Cross Shoe this season.

Tanned by the special Red Cross process

The Red Cross sole is tanned by a special process which preserves all the natural life and suppleness of the leather. Though a regular thickness this sole is so supple you can bend it double when new.

This entirely prevents the burning and "drawing" still soles cause. The moment you put it on, you notice the difference—it is so easy on your feet. High Shoes $4.50 and $5. Oxfords $3.50 and $4.

The Cry of the Age is "Back to the Farm"

With the best market in the world at his door, the intensive farmer located in the Monongahela valley is the wise man of his generation.

Every town has as much need of the small truck, fruit and poultry farms around it as it has for more factories. Such farms make living better and cheaper for the laboring man and more business for the merchant.

I have secured control of a large farm within five minutes walk of the borough limits and will, within the next six weeks, sell it out in small farms. I now have purchasers for about one-half of it and owing to the great demand for small farms near Charleroi expect to close all sales for these farms in a very short time.

A farm big enough for all the boys to work as a truck, poultry and fruit farm while the father works at the mill, can be bought for the price of a cheap town lot. Good country school nearby.

A farm big enough to require the whole time of one intensive farmer can be bought for $500.00. Read the Pittsburg papers about the great land show which will be held there within the next few weeks and learn what can be raised on a few acres of ground by the new methods of intensive farming.

RADICAL CHANGE

IN WOMEN'S SHOES

The Wonderful Ease of the Red Cross Shoe Brings Out Many Imitations

Shoe Manufacturers All Over the United States Trying to Produce a Flexible Sole

One of the greatest successes ever made in the shoe business, said Mr. Beerens, the reliable shoe man of 513 Fallowfield avenue, yesterday, is the Red Cross Shoe. It has taught women that comfort and style can be perfectly combined, and as a result a revolution is taking place in the making of women's shoes. Other manufacturers are trying every method they can think of to get the results secured by the Red Cross Tanning Process. Soles are "slashed," "flexed" and "worked" in an effort to make them flexible, but like all imitations they lack the merit of the original.

The superiority of the Red Cross Shoe lies in the fact that its sole is the highest grade leather put through a special tanning process, which takes six months' time. No acids or "stuffing" of any kind are used to hurry it through. As a result all the natural life and elasticity of the leather are preserved. It bends with the foot, giving a delightful feeling of ease and comfort, and its durability is not in the least impaired.

The numerous imitations of the Red Cross Shoe cannot use this special tanning process, so they endeavor to make "just as good" a shoe from the ordinary sole leather of commerce. Much of this is tanned in six weeks' time. It cannot be compared to the Red Cross sole leather in quality and it has very little flexibility. It is "broken up" by machinery in an effort to make it flexible and the result is never satisfactory. Women are learning to avoid these "made-over" substitutes and are demanding the genuine Red Cross Shoe.

A great many women, continued Mr. Beerens, have had the idea that a comfortable shoe could not have any sale. They have become so used to "breaking in" ordinary shoes to get the style they want that the Red Cross Shoe proves somewhat of a revelation. They find that it has all the style they could ask for—in fact, they can wear closer fit, and they do not have to break it in. The new styles of Fall are the smartest, trimmest shoes we have ever had in our store. Any woman will find it a pleasure to look at them. It will only be necessary to try them on her feet and allow her to bend the flexible sole to make her a Red Cross Shoe convert for life.

THE UNION MADE CLOTHING STORE

The Symbolism Didn't Appeal.
 "Charlie," sorrowfully sighed the young lady in the parlor of the concrete house on Washington avenue, "it is nearly 12 o'clock."

"Yes, Belinda," was the breathing response of her poetical companion, who was sitting on the sofa beside her. "The minute hand is drawing closer to the hour hand, and when the time of midnight is eluded the two hands will be even as one. Oh, darling Belinda," he continued as he literally simulated the action of the minute hand, "may not the coming together of those two hands be symbolical of us?"

She broke away and stood firmly on her feet. "No, Charles Henry Smith," she retorted angrily, "those two hands will remain as one but a single second, and then the minute hand will divorce itself and go on its way alone. No, Mr. Smith, a minute hand that doesn't stick isn't the kind of symbolism I want!"—Chicago News.

Dividing a Long Sermon.

Dr. Samuel Buell of the last half of the eighteenth century, who used to preach two or three hours, like Isaac Barrows, was ingenious in detaining his congregation. On one occasion, after preaching nearly two hours as long as he could feel sitting in the company of all his hearers he remarked that he was done preaching to sinners and that they were at liberty to go; the rest of his discourse would be addressed to good people.

A gentleman who once went to hear him stated that when the hourglass was nearly ready to be turned a second time from the commencement of his sermon he said, much to the relief of the person who related it, "One more." After going on some eight or ten minutes longer he said, "To conclude." and after another about equal interval he said, "Lastly."

The gentleman added that he expected every moment to hear him say "Everlastingly."

He Came Down Light.

A Chicago board of trade man who was not in the habit of attending church was taking a walk one Sunday morning, and on coming to a church at the regular hour of service he decided to go in. As he entered the auditorium in which the pews were adjusted upon a sloping floor an usher stepped forward and, wishing to consult him as to location before conducting him to a sitting, politely inquired:

"Would you like to come down pretty well?"

Mistaking the inquiry to be an appeal for money, the board of trade man began to fumble through his pockets as he growled:

"I'd like to, but I'm not prepared to come down very heavy, as 15 cents is all I have with me."—Harper's Magazine.

A Varnishing Tip.

When varnishing wood the work must be done in a warm room at a temperature of at least 75 degrees F. At a lower temperature the moisture in the air will give a milky and cloudy appearance to the varnish. On the other hand, at the higher temperature the moisture is not precipitated until the alcohol of the varnish has sufficiently evaporated to leave a thin smooth film of shellac. The durability and gloss are dependent on this.

The Blind Man's Lantern.

A blind man in Khoota (a Caucasian village) came back from the river one night bringing a pitcher of water and carrying in his hand a lighted lantern. Some one meeting him said: "You're blind. It's all the same to you whether it's day or night. Of what use to you is a lantern?" "I don't carry the lantern in order to see the road," replied the blind man, "but to keep some fool like you from running against me and breaking my pitcher."

His Peers.

"Pa, what does it mean to be tried by a jury of one's peers?"

"It means, my son, that a man is to be tried by a jury composed of men who are his equals or on an equality with him, so that they will have no prejudice against him."

"Then, pa, I s'pose you'd have to be tried by a jury of baldheaded men."

The Widow.

"In a town," said a life insurance official, "where life insurance was a rare thing a schoolteacher said to a little boy pupil:

"Tommy, define the word widow."

"A widow," Tommy answered, "is a poor woman with a large family of children who takes boarders."

Painfully Frank.

Wedderly—They say that a man and his wife grow to look alike after they have been married a few years. Now, my wife and I have been married ten years. Do you think we look alike? Singleton—Yes, indeed. You both seem to have the same sad expression.

Might Have Been Worse.

Rheumatic Patient—Oh, doctor, I do suffer so with my hands and feet! Cheery Doctor—My dear woman, only think what inconvenience you would have to suffer without them.

The Earth.

Tommy—Pop, does the earth go round? Tommy's Pop—Yes, my son. But it wouldn't if it was divided among all the people who want it.—Philadelphia Record.
